

My Home - My Future

A Free Seminar On Home Ownership Retention

Protect Your Most Valuable Asset - Your Home - In Troubled Times

Foreclosures in southeast Oakland County are escalating at historic rates. Don't let your home become a statistic! Learn from professional housing counselors what you can do today to preserve home ownership for your family's future.

Monday, November 9, 2009

6:30 p.m.

Southfield Public Library

26300 Evergreen Road, Southfield, MI

Topics include budgeting, credit, steps to take when behind on your mortgage, how to stop the foreclosure process, and how to find assistance when you need it.

Please call Oakland County Housing Counseling toll free at 1-888-350-0900 ext. 85402 with questions or if you plan to attend.

All are welcome!

Hosted by Oakland County Commissioners Eric Coleman, Janet Jackson, and Helaine Zack, The City of Southfield, Oakland County Community & Home Improvement Division, Lighthouse Community Development, and Oakland Livingston Human Service Agency.

Housing Counseling promotes and protects the interest of housing consumers