

APPENDIX G

WEBSITES FOR CHILDREN

Description of the Website	Web Address
The Internet Public Library provides children with reference websites and homework help.	www.ipl.org/ref/
Yahooligans is the yahoo search engine designed especially for kids.	www.yahooligans.com/
Adprima is a list of interesting, educational, and fun websites for middle school children.	www.adprima.com/kids.htm
National Geographic for Kids , the adult magazine targeted towards a younger audience.	www.nationalgeographic.com/kids/
Parenting Q&A is an information site for parents that contains answers to hundreds of questions ranging from child development issues to fatherhood to pediatric health.	www.realsolutions.org/parentqa.htm
KaCey's Web, The Kid's Corner! is part of the Minuteman Library Network and provides reading lists and Internet help for parents and their children.	www.mln.lib.ma.us/kacey/
The Children's Literature Website List provides a list of educational and fun web pages including the Caldecott Medal Home Page and the Newbery Medal Home Page.	www.amybmc.home.mindspring.htm
Duxbury Free Library Children's Department provides adults and children with links to Internet search engines, homework help, and fun web pages.	www.duxburyfreelibrary.org/childrens/default.htm
Kidshield, Links-4-Kids : Kidshield teaches children Internet safety and lists links that are child-friendly.	www.kidshield.com/links/
The Notable Children's Websites are chosen by professional librarians. The links provided are both educational and entertaining.	www.ala.org/alsc/nweb99.html
Educational Websites for Children and Teens contains information on math, physical and natural sciences, social studies, and reference materials.	Interact.uoregon.edu/MediaLit/ms/01/child.html
Perry Public Schools, Educational Websites offers materials on the government, art, college applications, and interactive game links.	scnc.perry.k12.mi.us/edlinks.html
The Homework Helper aids children with their school assignments in a variety of subjects.	School.discovery.com/students/

The Discovery School enhances learning through fresh ideas. This page has applications for students, parents, and teachers.	school.discovery.com/
Sports Illustrated for Kids is the website based on the popular youth magazine.	www.sikids.com/
Great Web Resources is a page devoted to reading, English, and communication.	www.indexwr.html
The Scholastic Web Page sells children's books as well as providing information for teachers and their students.	www.scholastic.com/
The Idea Box offers creative ideas for children such as music, arts and crafts, and recipes.	www.theideabox.com/
Frederick Community College consists of several helpful links for adults, students, and teachers.	www.fcc.cc/childrenscenter/
Kids & Youth is an FBI site with neat stuff for kids K-5 th and 6-12 th grades, and for parents and teachers.	http://www.fbi.gov/kids/6th12th/6th12th.htm
Learning for Kids lists all kinds of government websites for kids containing information about art, music, health, science, history, math, language and reading.	www.afterschool.gov/kdlearn.html
Justice for Kids & Youth features information, games and activities for kids K-12 focusing on the FBI, the courtroom, and how kids can use the internet safely.	www.usdoj.gov/kidspage
The Anti-Drug contains ideas for parents and teachers on how to prevent children from using drugs, as well as information on drugs.	www.theantidrug.com
Talking with Kids About Tough Issues provides parents with tips on how to talk about many of the tough issues facing kids, such as sex, drugs, death, tv news and violence.	www.talkingwithkids.org
The Children Page has numerous links to science and math sites on the web. There is a strong emphasis on astronomy with a virtual planetarium and a tour of mars.	www.pd.astro.it/hosted/bambini/english/children_page.html