NOTE: If you are asking the court to grant you a personal protection order, you should be aware that it will affect any custody and parenting time arrangements that are currently in effect. Please fill out the following worksheet to help the court decide what arrangements should be made.

The parenting time situation is  by court order. or  by an informal agreement between respondent and me.

Who has physical custody? _____

The parenting time situation is as follows:

- Petitioner       Respondent has reasonable parenting time.
 Petitioner       Respondent has specific days and times when she/he is allowed to visit with the children.
 Petitioner       Respondent has supervised parenting time with the children.

It is supervised by: _____

- Petitioner       Respondent does not have any parenting time with the children.

A. Complete this section if a court order controls custody and parenting time arrangements.

1. I do not want to change the current custody and parenting time arrangements. They should continue as ordered in the divorce judgment and/or custody order.
2. I do not want to change the current custody and parenting time arrangements. They should continue as ordered in the divorce judgment and/or custody order but:
- I think the exchange of the children should take place at a neutral place. I propose that we exchange the children at:
- HAVEN (available at limited dates and times; a fee will be charged)
- Other: _____
- The _____ Police Department.
3. I think that the safety of the children is at risk. I would like all parenting time between respondent and our minor children suspended.

B. Complete this section if you have an informal agreement about custody and parenting time arrangements.

1. I do not want to change our informal custody and parenting time agreement. Custody and parenting time should continue according to our informal agreement.
