Division Community Corrections

Service Provided Pre-Trial Services / Sentence Guideline Scores (SGL) for most felony defendants

Brief Description PreTrial Services provides judicial officers with verified background, social and criminal history information at a defendants' initial appearance and/or at any subsequent appearances if requested. A comprehensive narrative report also contains recommendations for release suitability according to MCL6.106. All pretrial misdemeanor and felony defendants are eligible to be interviewed by PreTrial Services. In addition to a narrative report at the initial appearance, and also in compliance with MCR6.106 factors of release suitability, PreTrial Services calculates the probability of confinement and likely sentence for felony defendants unable to post bond at subsequent court appearances.

Timeframe Current Service Provisions Joint Operating Agreements

CVT Benefit Jail space is saved, CVT's avoid having to spend additional taxpayer dollars, the community is protected and recidivism is reduced. District Court Judges have the capability of accepting a plea in a Felony matter using the SGL.

Department	Public Services	Division	Community Corrections
Service Provided	WWAM (Weekend / Weekday Alternative for Misdemeanants)	Brief Description	OCCC's WWAM program was created in an effort to provide Oakland County District Court Judges with a wider array of sentencing alternatives for certain misdemeanor offenders. In lieu of going to jail, crews are assigned to work for a number of days at non-profit locations in the County. WWAM crews - working Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, Saturday's and Sunday's under the supervision of a Community Corrections employee - perform tasks such as landscaping, painting, gardening, yard work, window washing, clearing snow from around fire hydrants, snow shoveling and an array of other tasks. These are all done at no cost to the non-profit agency or to the CVT.
