

The Oakland County Historical Commission presents
MOVEMENT AND MIGRATION:
Bringing Local History to the Classroom

April 25, 2009

8:00am - Noon
Presentations at Covert Center, Waterford

Funded in part by a grant from
Waterford Schools TAH Project

These sessions are free.
Please register; call 248-682-2067.

Noon - 2:00pm
Space is limited; advance registration required.

Lunch fee: $7.50
Call 248.682.2067

PRESENTATIONS

East to West Migration—1820-1850

Mr. James Craft

Lee Hecht Harrison

Turn-of-the-Century Migration Patterns

Dr. Karen Miller

History Department, Oakland University

BOX LUNCH AND TOUR

of the archaeological dig at the site of the Oliver Williams homestead, Waterford

Oakland County Historical Commission
1200 N. Telegraph
Pontiac, Michigan 48341
248.625.8181

The Covert Center is at 1150 Scott Lake Rd., the northeast corner of
Scott Lake and Pontiac Lake Roads.

Co-sponsors: Oakland Co. Pioneer & Historical Society,
Waterford Historical Society

For more information go to: www.oakgov.com/historic