MDARD INFO

There was a major revision in the Core manual for Private and Commercial Applicators in 2008. All applicators taking either the private or commercial core examinations should prepare by studying the new materials. They are available at any Extension office. Applicators wishing to re-certify by credits must earn the appropriate number of credits by December 31 the year of expiration.

If you are planning to take examinations, the certification fee should not be mailed ahead of time. It is payable at the time of examination to the State of Michigan and is $75 for commercial applicators and $50 for private applicators, payable by check or money order only with a photo ID. Remember, if you are re-certifying you may take the exams as many times as you need to within a year. Those who are taking the initial exams must pass within 6 months.

If your certification expires in 2011 and you did not receive a recertification packet this fall, phone the MDARD Lansing office at 1-800-292-3939. If you have received a packet and the number of credits which appear on the form do not agree with your records, mail in your attendance log to the address indicated or fill out the meeting attendance record form and mail it with the application and your fee and they will look for the discrepancy. If you don't know how many credits you have earned or for more information please phone the Lansing office and they may be able to help you. The regional offices of the MDARD have been closed. All inquiries will be taken by the Lansing office and examinations have been and will continue to be scheduled at various locations across the state.

If you would like more review or credit opportunities, you can find a current list of seminars on the web on the MDARD homepage at: www.mda.state.mi.us/industry/schedule.html
