

Franklin

A Community you can LIVE in!

The Village of Franklin, frequently referred to as the town that time forgot, is a small residential community housing a little over 1,000 families within its 2.7 square miles of gently sloping, winding roadways which are banked by tall trees and hedgerows. The Village is successful in maintaining a rural atmosphere amidst a sea of commercial development. Downtown is at a bend and dip in the road with a handful of delightful clapboard buildings serving as the central shopping district. A cider mill, fenced properties with horse barns and a steepled church facing a commons state the New England simplicity of look. Annual pumpkin sales, the Labor Day Art (on the green) Fair and an old fashioned Christmas walk attest the residents relish their setting. The Franklin Historical Society and a branch of the Women's National Federation and Garden Association have active memberships. This island of green is cherished and steadfastly protected by its residents.
