

Oxford Village

A community you can LIVE in!

The Village of Oxford is one square mile within the township of Oxford, includes a Central Business District and is one of Oakland County's Mainstreet communities. The M-24 highway, which bisects the village, is an important north-south corridor providing direct access to I-69 linking Flint and Port Huron. It is also linked to I-75 with its amazing connections throughout Metro Detroit and the state, placing Oxford at an excellent juncture. For over 150 years Oxford has been developing character; the village maintains a small town look even with the addition of modern amenities. Top-notch schools and a new, state-of-the-art public library attest to the modern status of this area. The downtown offers an array of unique shops, restaurants, a 6-screen movie theatre, and business services. Many village homes have historical character, which contributes to the overall quaint character of this community.
