

Rochester Hills

A community you can LIVE in!

Recognized as one of the top 100 places to live this thriving, young, residential community is conveniently situated near large employment centers. Upscale restaurants and shopping can be found at the "Village of Rochester Hills" on Adams Road. With the M-59 freeway passing through Rochester Hills and I-75 close by, the area is well connected to the rest of the Detroit metropolitan area. Oakland University is the only public university in Oakland County whose cultural enterprises include Meadow Brook Hall, Meadow Brook's art gallery and theatre, and the Meadow Brook music festival. Also adding to the distinct quality of life in this community are municipally supported parks offering a wide array of activities including tennis, golf, skiing, swimming, jogging, bicycling, boating and fishing. The Museum at Van Hoosen Farm in historic Stoney Creek Village, Paint Creek, Yates Cider Mill founded in 1863 offer glimpses into the history of this community.
