

RESIDENTIAL MARKET

By Community

Oakland County

Oakland County reflects a unique blend of sophisticated urban, trendy suburban and tranquil rural environments. Rich in natural resources and beauty, the county offers a broad range of lifestyles from back to nature and farm country, to suburban, to town center and urban neighborhoods. Housing in Oakland County offers something for every taste and income level from modest starter homes to the latest in trendy lofts in the many city centers and beautiful country estates.

- ◆ Thirty-nine percent of the land in Oakland County is used for single-family residential with almost 90% on lots less than one acre.
- ◆ Oakland's 1,450 inland lakes offer an abundance of lake-living opportunities in all price ranges.

Source: Realcomp II Ltd., Planning & Economic Development Services
Updated: July 2009