

BEST MANAGEMENT PRACTICES INVENTORY
OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN

PROJECT: Pebble Creek Bank Stabilization

CATEGORY:
Ecological Restoration

PRACTICE:
Soil Bioengineering

CONTACT:
Peggi Tabor, Woodcreek Watershed Protection Group
28509 Eastbrook Ct., Farmington Hills, MI 48334

248-932-8933

www.rougeriver.com
PJTabor@aol.com

OWNER: Peggi Tabor

PARTNERS:
Woodcreek Watershed Protection Group, Farmington Hills
Beautification Committee, City of Farmington Hills, Friends of the Rouge, Wayne County Department of the Environment Watershed
DESIGN: Farmington Hills Cable TV, Peggi Tabor, Jim Graham, Matt
Best, Sally Petrella, Joe Derek.

CONSTRUCTION: Peggi Tabor, Friends of the Rouge staff, Wayne
County DOE staff, and local volunteers

MAINTENANCE: Peggi Tabor

DATE INITIATED: April 23, 2002

INITIAL COST: (not submitted)

MAINTENANCE COST: (not submitted)/year

PROJECT

To stabilize an eroding streambank, soil bioengineering (live fascines), woody debris management, and a buffer strip were used. The Pebble Creek project is in T1N R9E 12 3, on the south side of Wellington Dr., east side of Pebble Creek along the bend to the west.

Overview of site

Volunteers install rock to stabilize toe before installing live fascines