

OakRivers

Maximizing Oakland County's Community Assets Related to our Rivers

Large Woody Debris Management:
An important Part of Managing River Corridors in Urban Watersheds

Workshop Agenda:

Introduction & Overview of OakRivers Initiative
Nina Ignaczak, Senior Planner,
Oakland County Planning & Economic Development
Services

What is LWDM?
The RMTAC Experience
Matt Best, Environmental Specialist,
Wayne County Department of Environment

The Role of LWDM in Urban River Stewardship
Ted Bolak, Stewardship Director,
Clinton River Watershed Council

A Primer on LWDM and the Rochester Hills Project
Scott Dierks
JFNew Associates

Q&A

Thursday, April 3rd
9-11:30
Oakland County Executive Offices
Conference Center
2100 Pontiac Lake Rd. Bldg 41 W
Waterford, MI 48328

This workshop is coordinated by Oakland County Planning & Economic Development Services in partnership with the Oakland County Drain Commissioner's Office, the Clinton River Watershed Council and the city of Rochester Hills. Technical assistance provided by the Wayne County Riparian Technical Management Advisory Committee and JFNew Associates.

L. Brooks Patterson, County Executive

John P. McCulloch, Drain Commissioner