

OakRivers

LARGE WOODY DEBRIS MANAGEMENT WORKSHOP

THURSDAY APRIL 3, 2008 9-11:30 am

AGENDA

Introduction & Overview of the OakRivers Initiative

Nina Ignaczak, Senior Planner

Oakland County Planning & Economic Development Services

What is LWDM? The RMTAC Experience

Matt Best, Environmental Specialist

Wayne County Department of Environment

The Role of LWDM in Urban River Stewardship

Ted Bolak, Stewardship Director

Clinton River Watershed Council

A Primer on LWDM and the Rochester Hills Project

Scott Dierks, JFNew Associates

Q&A

This workshop is coordinated by the Oakland County Planning & Economic Development Services' Environmental Stewardship Program in partnership with the Oakland County Drain Commissioner's Office, the Clinton River Watershed Council, and the city of Rochester Hills. Special thanks to JFNew and the Wayne County riparian Management technical Advisory Committee for their assistance.