Our Consultant Team:

CARLISLE/WORTMAN ASSOCIATES

605 S. Main Street Suite 1

Ann Arbor, MI 48104

<http://www.cwaplan.com/>

Carlisle/Wortman Associates planner Sally Elmiger was our primary contractor on the project, providing project coordination, meeting facilitation, and writing of the text on the poster. With offices in Ann Arbor and Clarkston, the firm has served over sixty municipal clients and provides ongoing services to thirty-one communities within southeastern Michigan. Sally has been an Environmental Planner with Carlisle/Wortman Associates Inc. (CWA) for the past seven years. In addition to environmental planning, CWA professionals provide their clients expertise in community planning, landscape architecture, code enforcement and site plan review.

Margot Campos Design provided logo and branding development and graphic design of the identity poster and map guide.

INSITE DESIGN STUDIO, INC.

516 E. Washington St.

Ann Arbor, Michigan 48103

Insite Design artist Janice Das provided illustration services. Established in 1994, Insite Design Studio, Inc. is a landscape architecture firm that serves public, recreational, commercial, institutional and residential clients. Janice joined InSite Design Studio, Inc. in 2002. She completed her undergraduate work in Architecture at the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana in 1988 and continued her education at The Morton Arboretum and The New York Botanical Garden where she received certificates in Natural History, Botanical Illustration, and Landscape Design. Janice brings her diverse education and work experience to InSite Design studio and focuses her efforts toward designing, restoring, and managing landscapes with sensitivity toward ecological and cultural histories. Additionally, Janice uses her skills as an artist, educator and naturalist to interpret ecological issues to the public through interpretive signage and exhibit design.
