

October 12, 2009

Teen to cops: My mom grows pot

*By TAMMY STABLES BATTAGLIA
FREE PRESS STAFF WRITER*

A six-foot-tall marijuana plant growing in the family living room was too much for a 19-year-old Rochester Hills woman, who called police to report her mother, the Oakland County Sheriff's Department said today.

Deputies who searched the home on Sunday also found dried marijuana hanging in the basement, a digital scale, packaging material, a marijuana grinder and marijuana pipes, according to Sgt. Brent Miles.

The 40-year-old mother was released at the scene while the marijuana is sent for analysis. Police say they hope to have the woman arraigned by the end of the week.

Deputies also confiscated two handguns and a shotgun at the home on the 2200 block of Warrington Rd. for safe-keeping.
