POSTED: 5:07 pm EST November 26, 2008

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP, Mich. -- A 38-year-old Commerce Township woman is expected to be arraigned Thursday on a felonious assault charge after the Oakland County Sheriff's Office said she stabbed her husband in the head and hand.

The sheriff's office said the woman got a folding knife from her son's room and attacked her husband Tuesday, accusing him of infidelity.

The husband was treated and released the same night.

The sheriff's office said the couple's 9-year-old daughter was home at the time, a 15-year-old son was out.

Deputies have been called to the same house, on the 2400 block of Carl Court, once before for domestic trouble.
