Build a better community with equal housing opportunities for all residents.

Fair Housing Center

of Metropolitan Detroit

This workshop is a must for partners receiving funding through Oakland County Community Development Block Grant, HOME Investment Partnerships Program, Emergency Solutions Grants Program and Homeless Assistance Programs.

Led by Steve Tomkowiak, executive director, Fair Housing Center of Metropolitan Detroit, the workshop covers:

- Definition of fair housing and why it is important—beyond being in compliance with the law
- Ways to make sure fair housing practices are happening in your community
- Fair housing marketing outreach materials you can use
- Information on filing a housing discrimination complaint with state and federal offices
- How to meet with a certified housing counselor, at no charge

RSVP to: chambersd@oakgov.com | (248) 858-0493

Cost: Free | Advance Registration is Requested by April 29

Oakland County's housing and community development programs are funded by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).
