
How to Watch Oakland County Board of Commissioners Meetings and Participate in Public Comment

In the interest of public safety, the BOC encourages members of the public to access and engage in upcoming meetings (both committee and full Board meetings) through the options below. As the BOC continues remote meetings through May 31, 2021 and in accordance with the Open Meetings Act, all meetings can be viewed online, and public comment will be heard by phone.

Watch the remote meeting live

All Board meetings and standing committee meetings are webcast live. View the meeting calendar here (<http://bit.ly/BOCCal>) and watch the meetings live here (<http://bit.ly/WatchOakIBOC>).

Address the BOC during the public comment portion of the agenda

Members of the public can address the BOC during the public comment portion of the agenda by calling the public access line. Lines may be muted when necessary to facilitate other callers. To participate in public comment, call the following number and enter the access code during the public comment portion of the meeting agenda: 1 (872) 240-3311; access code: 271-151-061

Please note that constituents can contact their commissioners directly via phone and/or email, outside of public comment. To find your commissioner and view their contact information, visit <http://bit.ly/DstMapOC>.
