PUBLIC NOTICE OF 50TH DISTRICT COURT ORDER

UPDATED EMERGENCY MEASURES TO REDUCE COVID-19 RISK (MAY 15, 2020 UPDATE)

In light of Governor Whitmer’s executive order directing Michigan residents to “stay home, be safe”, and as authorized by Michigan Supreme Court Administrative Order No. 2020-2 and subsequent orders, the 50th District Court has updated its Emergency Measures to Reduce COVID-19 Risk. The Court’s priority is the health of all staff and the public. The following measures will be in effect until further order of the Court:

- IN GENERAL
 - 50th District Court will close to the general public, but will remain operational during regular business hours to conduct essential court services including case events involving in-custody defendants and other actions deemed as emergencies by the judges. All other case events during this time period will be conducted using interactive video technology or other remote participation tools as practicable; otherwise the matters will be adjourned to later dates.
 - In an effort to remain accessible to the public and to assist with questions, the court phone lines will remain open during regular business hours.
 - Court hearings that are conducted will soon be livestreamed on YouTube. Please check the court’s website for updates and further information.

To protect the health and safety of staff and court users, for efficient and effective operations to ensure timely hearings and disposition of essential matters, and exercising best efforts under emergency circumstances to provide timely justice in all matters, the following shall apply:

A. Criminal Matters - To the extent possible and consistent with Michigan Court Rules and a defendant's constitutional and statutory rights, the court will use interactive video technology or other remote participation tools as practicable for the following:

1. In-custody criminal defendants - pleas, sentencings, arraignments under MCR 6.104, bond motions under MCR 6.106 or MCR 6.108, probable cause conferences under MCR 6.108, and preliminary examinations under MCR 6.110;

2. Criminal extradition matters for in-custody defendants pursuant to MCL 780.9. The issue of bail will be addressed for those eligible defendants as provided in MCL 780.14;

3. Forensic evaluations for competence to stand trial, competence to waive Miranda rights, and criminal responsibility;

4. Review and determination of requests for search warrants pursuant to MCL 780.651;

5. Review and issuance of arrest warrants pursuant to MCL 764.1a for crimes that present a danger to public safety; and,

6. All other criminal matters, including all non-emergency matters where the defendant is not in custody. All criminal jury trial are adjourned until after June 22, 2020.

B. Civil Matters – The Court will use interactive video technology or other remote participation tools as practicable; otherwise, the matter will be adjourned and participants will receive notice of the adjourned date.

C. Traffic Matters - The Court will use interactive video technology or other remote participation tools as practicable; otherwise, the matter will be adjourned and participants will receive notice of the adjourned date. No bench warrants shall be issued for individuals failing to appear during the state of emergency

D. Other Emergency Motions - At the discretion of the Court, the Court will use interactive video technology or other remote participation tools as practicable; otherwise, the matter will be adjourned and participants will receive notice of the adjourned date.

For the benefit of court users, see additional details below:
