Waterford, MI 48327

Registration due by June 26, 2026

Seated beside an experienced pilot in an airplane, children ages 6-17 with disabilities and up to two family members and/or friends experience the world from a new perspective.

This program includes airplane-themed crafts, fun activities and refreshments. Each child with a disability receives a Dreams and Wings T-shirt, gold aviator wings, commemorative flight certificate and lifelong memories. There is no charge; all costs are covered by philanthropic contributions.
