ARCHERY DEER HUNTING

ROSE OAKS COUNTY PARK

In this designated area, hunting will be in accordance with Michigan Department of Natural Resources public land regulations. PLEASE NOTE 450-FEET SAFETY ZONES FOR RESIDENTIAL/ COMMERCIAL AREAS ARE SIGNED AND STRICTLY ENFORCED ON OAKLAND COUNTY PARK PROPERTY. This program will help control the park's deer population. Hikers and hunters share the park during the season. Hunt responsibly.

Hunters are HIGHLY encouraged to take adult does to help manage the population. For best deer management practice, hunters are encouraged to take a buck that has at least three points on one side, a spread out to the ears and medium-heavy base. Deer harvested, or shot and not recovered, should be reported to park management within 24 hours by calling 248-634-9811.

PARKING

Rose Oaks deer hunters must park at the day use parking lots accessible off Fish Lake Road and Buckhorn Lake Road. A valid Oakland County Parks vehicle permit is required. Unauthorized parked vehicles will be ticketed and towed at the owner's expense.
