

Great Opportunity for H.S. Students!

2019-2020 Oakland County Treasurer Andy Meisner Financial Literacy Multi-Media Arts Contest

Overview

- ☞ For Oakland County public high school students in grades 9-12. (Students can win significant college scholarships or cash awards! Over $80,000 ~~distributed in~~ past eight years.)
- ☞ Application, signature forms, and all contest guidelines and information can be found at: <https://forms.oakgov.com/103>
- ☞ Deliver 2-D art or videos, based on the theme of Financial Literacy, along with signature forms and typed, matted artist statements to Ross at the Oakland County Treasurer's office, anytime between the hours of 9:00-5:00. Deadline: Monday, March 2, 2020.
- ☞ All work will be part of a county-wide exhibit in the Oakland County Treasurer's Office for one year and displayed on the online art gallery.
- ☞ All 2-D art pieces should be matted; black mat preferred.
- ☞ Only one entry per student.
- ☞ Completed application must accompany art/video, along with typed, matted artist statement and signature form.
- ☞ Student's name and school district should be printed on the back of 2-D art or on the cover and on the actual video/DVD.
- ☞ All participants will be notified no later than March 31, 2019.
- ☞ A reception will be held for all participants and fans in April, during Financial Literacy Month.

Contest Deadline - on or before March 2, 2020

The Oakland County Treasurer's office is located in the Oakland County Courthouse Building
1200 N. Telegraph
Waterford/Pontiac

(Please note, you cannot take a cell phone into this building, so leave it in your car when delivering the art.)

Schedule a visit by Andy to your class/school by contacting us!

Ross Gavin: 248.858.0627 or gavinr@oakgov.com
Hedy Blatt: hedy.blatt@oakland.k12.mi.us

This opportunity is for any art, music, theatre, video production, business, social studies, economics, math, or those teaching financial literacy curricula!

