

Water Resources Commissioner Returns Bill Payment Location to Pontiac City Hall

May 15, 2017

(Waterford, Michigan) – On Thursday, May 18, 2017, Oakland County Water Resources Commissioner Jim Nash will join the City of Pontiac’s elected officials for a special ribbon-cutting ceremony to announce the grand opening of the new water bill payment drop location. The free ceremony is open to the public and will begin at 8:30 a.m., in the atrium area, on the first floor of the Pontiac City Hall, located at 47450 Woodward Avenue, Pontiac, Michigan.

Mayor Deirdre Waterman, City Council President Patrice Waterman, and many members of the 9th Council will participate in the official ceremony. The 9th Council members are represented by President Pro Tem Mary Pietila, Don Woodward, Randy Carter, Dr. Doris Taylor-Burks, Mark Holland, and Kermit Williams.

The highly anticipated return of a payment location in city hall is a welcomed service for many residents. It has been years since the residents of Pontiac have had this convenience.

“I am glad to provide this service to make payments more convenient for our customers,” said Nash.

The bill payment center will provide residents with the following:

- Payment drop off box
- Opportunity to contact representatives by using the newly installed phone at the center
- Make a phone request for an on-site appointment
- Brochures and printed informational materials

Light refreshments will be provided.
